The study says that flood irrigation has been the primary method of irrigation for the majority of the crops, and these crops are now a new type of farm. The study also says that floods are more likely to occur in the future, and that these floods could cause significant damage. In conclusion, it is important to note that the study found that flood irrigation is not a sustainable method of irrigation, and that other methods should be considered.

---

Session

From page 1A

*STANTHOMAS — A doublewide trailer located on South Fremont Drive in South Fremont was destroyed by fire on Monday, June 8. Firemen responded to the call at 12:36 p.m., but by the time they arrived, the trailer was completely engulfed in flames.

STANTHOMAS — A doublewide trailer located on South Fremont Drive in South Fremont was destroyed by fire on Monday, June 8. Firemen responded to the call at 12:36 p.m., but by the time they arrived, the trailer was completely engulfed in flames.

STANTHOMAS — A doublewide trailer located on South Fremont Drive in South Fremont was destroyed by fire on Monday, June 8. Firemen responded to the call at 12:36 p.m., but by the time they arrived, the trailer was completely engulfed in flames.

STANTHOMAS — A doublewide trailer located on South Fremont Drive in South Fremont was destroyed by fire on Monday, June 8. Firemen responded to the call at 12:36 p.m., but by the time they arrived, the trailer was completely engulfed in flames.